The assignment concerns the paper On the excluded minor structure theorem for graphs of large tree-width (available for free download). You do not need to read all the proofs, understanding the improved statement of the structure theorem presented here should be enough. What extra properties does this version provide compared to the one we stated, and how could they be useful? Write and send me a short summary of what you read.