

The assignment concerns the paper The Bidimensionality Theory and Its Algorithmic Applications. This is a survey paper on the concept of “bidimensionality”, which has a number of algorithmic applications. Depending how much time you have and how interested you are, you might also have a look at the papers referenced in the survey. Write and send me a short summary of what you read.